

The University College of Tourism Studies Euroaula is an institution founded in 1986 that has constantly been researching with the most advanced pedagogical methodology and new technologies with the desire to offer the highest quality theory and practical training in its plans of study, thus allowing the student to obtain a notable level of knowledge and broad professional experience that changes their future to become the best professionals in Spain.

Euroaula is specialized in tourism studies, carrying out programmes such as the Bachelor Degree in Tourism, Master courses, Senior Technician Degrees, Cabin Crew and other specialization courses. Euroaula is an affiliated centre to the University of Girona, so its programmes are totally official and recognized by the University.

Programmes

✓ Bachelor Degree in Tourism - the 4-year syllabus offers theoretical and practical knowledge together with personal and professional competences that will enable students to be successful when facing new challenges within the tourist sector, and within the specialisation of Hotel Management.

✓ Master's Programmes - 10-month Master's courses in Tourism Management and in Tourism Marketing and E-Commerce.

✓ Senior Technician Degree in Tourism - technical studies that enable our students with qualified practice of the profession that they have chosen and provides them with the training necessary to acquire professional competence, as well as to understand the organization and given characteristics of their sector.

✓ Specialization Courses - these courses are directed at those wishing to complete their academic learning or acquire new knowledge, thus enhancing your personal curriculum vitae.

Facilities

The Campus of Euroaula University School of Tourism offers the best and most modern facilities in the centre of the city of Barcelona, where the teaching and tourism practices are carried out.

Internships

EUROAULA arranges the incorporation of all its students into the work world through internship agreements that adapt to the professional choice of each student. In this way our students have the possibility of applying all their theoretical knowledge acquired during their academic education. The hours of internships are carried out in accordance with the plan determined by the Center.

These internships will run from February to June 2011, and in any case the school can guarantee that internships will be paid. A good knowledge of Spanish will help finding an internship.

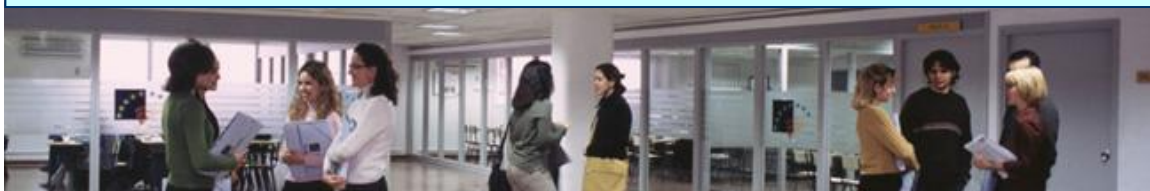

E.U.T. Euroaula offers its three own hotels and one hotel chain, where its students can develop the theoretical knowledge acquired during their training, by carrying out practical activities. These are:

- ✓ Hotel Splendid Bcn
- ✓ Hotel Atrium Palace
- ✓ Hotel Barcelona
- ✓ Hotel Chain Acta Hotels.

In addition, Euroaula disposes also of a travel agency.
